

October 2011 Omnibus Week 2

Princeton Survey Research Associates International for National Journal

Final Topline Results
October 17, 2011

1,007 adults age 18 and older
Margin of error: Plus or minus 3.7 percentage points

Interviewing dates: October 13 – 16, 2011

Notes: Due to rounding, percentages may not add to 100. An asterisk (*) indicates values less than 0.5%.

CC1. Congress has now passed free trade agreements with South Korea, Colombia and Panama. Some people support these trade agreements as a way to help our economy by allowing more U.S. goods to be sold overseas. Others are opposed, saying these trade agreements will cost too many American jobs.

Which comes closer to your view -- Do you support or oppose these trade agreements?

Oct 13-16

38	Support
41	Oppose
21	Don't know/Refused (VOL.)

CC2. There is a proposal before Congress to put tariffs on Chinese goods sold in the United States to reduce our trade deficit with China. Some people support these tariffs because they believe China is manipulating the value of its currency to hold down prices of its products and undercut U.S. manufacturers. Others are opposed, saying these tariffs will increase the price American consumers pay for Chinese products and risk a trade war.

Which comes closer to your view -- Do you support or oppose these proposed tariffs on Chinese goods?

CC3. Senate Republicans have blocked confirmation of President Obama's nominee to run a new office to provide more consumer protection of investments, loans and credit cards. Some people feel Senate Republicans are justified in blocking confirmation because this new office makes it more difficult for banks to lend and should be reformed or eliminated. Others say Obama's nominee should be confirmed and the new office is necessary to protect consumers and prevent another financial crisis.

What is your opinion – Do you think the Senate should confirm or should NOT confirm Obama's nominee?
